

ARTICLE D.22: STAFF MEETINGS

- D.22.1 Regularly scheduled staff meetings will be held at each school. An agenda will be provided to all staff three (3) days prior to the meeting. Additional staff meetings may be held:
- a) in the case of an emergency;
  - b) when an issue arises for which the Principal deems an additional meeting is warranted.
- D.22.2 All staff members shall have the right to place items on the staff meeting agenda.
- D.22.3 Written minutes of staff meetings shall be kept and circulated to all staff members.
- D.22.4 Teachers shall not be required to attend staff meetings which commence prior to one (1) hour before classes begin or commence later than one (1) hour after the dismissal of pupils.

EMPLOYER'S PROPOSED ARTICLE

ARTICLE D.24: STAFF MEETINGS

- D.24.1 ~~Seven days notice of regular staff meetings shall be given, including the agenda of items to be considered except for emergency meetings.~~ Regularly scheduled staff meetings will be held at each school. An agenda will be provided to all staff three (3) days prior to the meeting. Additional staff meetings may be held:
- a) in the case of an emergency;
  - b) when an issue arises for which the Principal deems an additional meeting is warranted.
- D.24.2 All staff members shall have the right to place items on the staff meeting agenda. ~~Staff members may forward items to be considered by the Principal / Vice-Principal for inclusion on the agenda.~~
- D.24.3 Written minutes of staff meetings shall be kept and circulated to all staff members.
- D.24.4 Teachers shall not be required to attend staff meetings which commence prior to one (1) hour before classes begin or commence later than one (1) hour after the dismissal of pupils.
- ~~D.24.5 Part-time teachers will attend staff meetings. When a teacher works in multiple schools, they will consult with the Principals to determine which school's regular staff meeting they will attend.~~

---

Mike McDiarmid
Superintendent of Schools

---

Tanya Davidson
President, BVTU